ABOUT KANCHO
JAMES PANKIEWICZ

James Pankiewicz moved to Japan in 1996 to study the Japanese language, culture and further his passion for karate. Living in Okinawa he formed strong relationships with many of the masters of Okinawa, most notably with Arakaki Toshimitsu Hanshi, with whom he has graded to 5th dan with in Matsubayashiryu karate-do.

In 2011, he founded the Dojo Bar. A meeting hub for international karateka visiting the home of karate, and in 2018 he founded Asato Dojo, an international centre for martial arts study and exchange: see Asatodojo.com

James Kancho was also one of the masters who trained us during our 2023 travels to Okinawa, impressing everyone with his extensive knowledge and passion.

Now for the first time ever, GKR students will have an opportunity to train with James Kancho - without the time or expense required to travel to Okinawa.
